HB 3133 - SB 2969

March 10, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires the chief administrative officer of a county highway department to complete an inventory of all machinery, equipment, tools, supplies, and materials within 75 days of taking office. The completed inventory shall be provided to the county legislative body and the chief executive officer of the county.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Currently, the chief administrative officer is required to submit an inventory list within 60 days of taking office to the county legislative body and the chief executive officer of the county.
- Lengthening the amount of time to provide an inventory list will not significantly change current procedures or policies within local governments.
- Any fiscal impact to local government as a result of this legislation is estimated to be not significant.
